Conceptual Site Design, Prototypes / Mock-ups, Icons, Banner Ads (Flash, Animated GIF, PNG), Flash Components, Mastheads, Small W3C / CSS Compliant Web Sites

As a designer I often work with Web developers to create the look and feel of the sites they build for their clients. Developers write the XHTML and CSS code that gives a site its functionality and makes it display properly across different browsers, but that doesn't mean they have an eye for elegant design - sorry people. Give me a shout if you're looking to collaborate on a project.
